

Lincoln Berean Church is located in Lincoln, Nebraska. Lincoln is a college town of 300,000 people with an active arts, sports, and music community that is drawing in young entrepreneurial start-ups. Lincoln Berean Church is a growing church with a weekly attendance of 4000+ people and is committed to the values of worship, outreach, community, prayer, instruction, service, and stewardship.

LBC Youth Ministry is active and growing, targeting hundreds of students within our church and the thousands more throughout the city. We are poised to be able to make a significant impact in the youth community in the coming years. We have completed construction of the first phase of a 30,000 square foot Youth Complex, that has proven to be an excellent ministry tool.

We are looking for an experienced student ministry director/pastor to lead our high school ministry. The High School Director in collaboration with the youth ministry staff will have the opportunity to join an incredible team of people who are passionate about helping students experience Jesus and make significant next steps in their relationship with Him. We are looking for someone who is passionate, energetic and thrives in working in a team environment.
