F.A.Q

Who can come?

The trip is designed for Twentysomethings at Lincoln Berean Church.

Where will we stay, and what are the facilities and food like?

We will be led by Glorieta Wilderness (www.glorieta.org/wilderness) and stay at the Glorieta Retreat Center (www.glorieta.org). The Glorieta Retreat Center is ideally situated on 2,400 acres of private land in the Sangre de Cristo range of the Southern Rocky Mountains of northern New Mexico. We will also utilize the Santa Fe National Forest and Pecos Wilderness area. Gender specific dorm style housing at Glorieta Retreat Center are complete with bunk beds and bathrooms with showers. One night will be spent camping in tents, with all gear provided. Good home cooking is served family style and delivered with a big appetite in mind.

Do I need outdoor experience before going on the trip?

No! This is a fantastic trip to experience outdoor adventures you have never done before!

Who will guide the adventure?

All outdoor activities will be professionally guided. Glorieta Wilderness www.glorieta.org/wilderness will oversee the guiding.

Do I have to be in good physical shape to go on the trip?

The trip has daily physical activity at high elevation, and the hike to the top of the mountain will be multiple miles. Although helpful to be in good physical shape, it is not a critical component of this trip. Glorieta Wilderness will need to be made aware of serious medical conditions such as heart problems, recent surgery, or high blood pressure.

How do I pack for the adventure?

Check out the “Gear List” for items needed for the trip.

What is the weather typically like in the New Mexico Rockies?

Adhere to your “Gear List!” The weather fluctuates dramatically on a daily basis throughout the summer. Average temperatures are daytime 80’s and nighttime 40’s.

Is there special housing available for married couples?

There are a few rental cabins available for married couples with their own private beds and rooms, for an extra charge. Please contact Jason Knott (jknott@lincolnberean.org) for availability and additional details. Couples also have the option of staying in separate, gender specific cabins.

What if I have additional questions or concerns?

Please contact Whitney at wbybee@lincolnberean.org for questions, or Scott Chapman at scott@glorieta.org for questions specific to New Mexico.
